FULL DESCRIPTION

THE PROPERTY

Nestled in a highly desirable area, this stunning three-bedroom semi-detached property boasts a prime location with beautiful countryside walks and the local football and social club just a short distance away. Situated near paddocks, this double fronted home features a large driveway and a sympathetic side extension, as well as a complete renovation that has maximized space and light throughout.

The open plan family and kitchen room is bright and spacious, with bi-folding doors leading out to the fully enclosed sunny rear garden. A cosy lounge with an open fire adds versatility to the ground floor, along with a downstairs shower room and a first-floor bathroom. Ideal for a growing family, the property includes two double bedrooms and a large single bedroom.

LOCATION

Located in a popular village, the home is close to the blue flag beach of Harwich and offers a variety of activities for all ages. Dovercourt Town provides an array of amenities, from independent shops to larger chains, and two nearby railway stations offer easy access to London. The area also boasts a range of clubs and festivals, fostering a strong sense of community and providing enjoyable days out for the whole family. This beautiful family home is a must-see property in an attractive location.
